SUBJECT: Assault with a Deadly Weapon Arrest

CASE NUMBER: 1503880

DATE OCCURRED: December 3, 2015

TIME OCCURRED: 6:39 a.m.

CONTACT PERSON: Lieutenant Tim Mahon

On Thursday, December 3, 2015, at approximately 6:39 a.m., San Bruno Police Officers responded to the 500 block of Huntington Avenue regarding a report of the brandishing of a knife inside a residence.

The victim in this case stated that he had been involved in an argument with his 29 year-old roommate, Andre Choc-Hernandez. During the argument, Choc-Hernandez produced a knife, told the victim that he intended to kill him, and proceeded to make stabbing motions with the knife toward the victim. Fearing for his safety, the victim was able to leave the residence and call the police.

When San Bruno Police Officers arrived on scene, Choc-Hernandez had locked himself inside the residence and refused to come out. For the safety of all parties involved, officers chose not to force entry, but rather monitored the actions of Choc-Hernandez until the incident could be safely resolved. Officers made contact Choc-Hernandez later in the day and he was taken into custody without incident. He was booked into the San Mateo County Jail for an assault with a deadly weapon. No injuries were reported as a result of this incident.
